

CONNECTING

INSPIRING THE FUTURE

Latino

LEADERS

THADDEUS ARROYO

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH THE NEW CEO OF
AT&T OWNED IUSACELL

LATINO
WINEMAKERS'
ROUND TABLE:
THE INDUSTRY TODAY

THE LIFT
SPECIAL OF THE FEATURE CUBAN EMBARGO

www.latinoleaders.com

U.S. $3.95
February / March 2015
Vol. 16 No. 1
Display until 04 / 10 / 2015

0 2 >

TOP LEADERS IN FINANCE

A NOTEWORTHY INDEX

HILDA OCHOA-BRILLEMBOURG

Founder and Chairman

Strategic Investment Group

Hilda Ochoa-Brillembourg is Founder and Chairman of Strategic Investment Group. She served as President and CEO of Strategic from 1987 until August 2014. Strategic received the 2011 and 2012 aiCIO Industry Innovation Award for Investment Outsourcing. A Fulbright Fellow and Fulbright Lifetime Achievement Awardee, she completed doctoral studies (except dissertation) in Business Administration in Finance at Harvard Business School. She received a Master of Public Administration from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard and a Bachelor of Science in Economics from Universidad Andres Bello, Caracas.

Hilda serves on the Board of Directors of General Mills Inc., McGraw Hill Financial Inc., and Cementos Pacasmayo, S.A.A. She is also a member of the Dean's Executive Committee at Harvard Kennedy School, a lifetime member of the Council on Foreign Relations, a long-time member of the World Economic Forum and a Trustee of the Committee for Economic Development. She is founding Chairman of the Youth Orchestra of the Americas and a member of the Board of Overseers and Investment Committee at New England Conservatory. She serves on the board of the Atlantic Council and St. Alban's School of public service and has published articles in various financial journals, newspapers, and magazines.

LUIS MAIZEL

President

LM Advisors, LLC

Luis Maizel is the president of LM Advisors, LLC, and the senior managing director of LM Capital Group, LLC, the largest Hispanic money manager in the USA. He is currently a trustee of the University of San Diego, where he chairs the investment committee.

Luis received both a BS in Mechanical Electrical Engineering and an MS in Industrial Engineering from the National University of Mexico. He also received an MBA from Harvard Business School, where he graduated as a Baker Scholar, the school's highest academic honor. He is a contributor to many publications, both in the U.S. and Mexico, and served as an economic advisor in a previous Mexican administration.

Luis has lectured at Harvard University where he was a faculty member and is constantly invited to speak to students at graduate schools in the University of California system.

He has served in many nonprofit boards including the AMI Montessori, the Ken Jewish Community and the HBS Alumni Association in Mexico. He served in the Wells Fargo community board and is in the NAFIN (the Mexican Development Bank) overseas board. Additionally, he sits on various other public and private boards, including Vibra Bank, Comexhidro, Biorotec and Minera del Pitic.

JOSÉ E. FELICIANO

Partner and Founder

Clearlake Capital Group

Jose Feliciano is a Founding Partner of Clearlake Capital Group, a Santa Monica-based private equity firm with approximately $1.4 billion of assets under management targeting special situations investment opportunities. Prior to founding Clearlake in 2006, Jose was a partner and member of the investment committee at Tennenbaum, an investment firm focused on distressed and special situations investments. Before Tennenbaum, he served as CFO of gov-Works, Inc., a payments services provider to the public sector, he was previously an investment banker at Goldman Sachs.

Jose has led investments in the energy, healthcare, industrials, and transportation/logistics sectors throughout his career. He currently serves on the board of several Clearlake portfolio companies and has served on the board of directors, bank instructing groups and bondholder committees for numerous other companies. He also serves on the board of several non-profit organizations. Mr. Feliciano received a B.S. in Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering with High Honors from Princeton University and a M.B.A. from Stanford University.